Bulb Planting

Bulbs may be planted in the garden from early October until the ground freezes. The best results are obtained, however, from late October planting.

In preparation, the ground should be dug to a depth of at least 12 inches, thoroughly pulverized, and enriched with well-decayed barn manure.

Proper spacing, depth of planting, and winter protection are the remaining essentials.

Hyacinths should be planted 6 inches deep and 5 to 6 inches apart. Double Tulips should be put 5 inches deep and 5 to 6 inches apart; Single Tulips, 5 inches deep and 4 to 5 inches apart. Narcissi are best placed 5 to 6 inches deep and 5 to 8 inches apart, according to habit of flowering, the Bunch or Polyantha group requiring the most space. Crocuses, Scillas, and other small bulbs may be planted 3 inches deep and 3 inches apart.

For bedding purposes Hyacinths and Tulips, inasmuch as the bulbs are inexpensive and flower early, may be replaced with bedding plants. Splendid effects are obtained by grouping the later-flowering Darwin or May-flowering Tulips, in colonies or groups in the shrub border or among the perennials.

Narcissi, Jonquils, Crocuses, and Scillas, although splendid for bedding, are more at home when naturalized in permanent colonies on the lawn, along the woodland border, or in the meadows and fields. Bulbs planted thus require no winter protection, but those planted in open beds should be covered with a mulch of litter or leaves which, however, should not be applied until late December, after frost has penetrated the ground 2 or 3 inches, and should be removed at the first indication of spring's approach.

We shall be pleased to quote prices where bulbs are required in quantity, or to furnish estimates to include planting.

SINGLE EARLY TULIPS

At the time of the year when a flower of any sort attracts attention, the Tulips probably have no equal. The effects which they produce with their varied and brilliant colorings cannot be obtained in any other flower during the early spring. Tulips make a most gorgeous display in flower beds before the time for planting the regular summer flowers, and also produce a beautiful effect among shrubbery and perennial beds if planted in groups or clumps or used as borders. For forcing in the house in winter, Tulips will make as nice pot plants as anyone may desire. The same general directions for cultivation in pots may be used as for Hyacinths. The Single Early Tulips are the best for bedding, as they flower much earlier than the other sorts and will be through blooming in time for the preparation of beds for summer flowers. Tulip bulbs should be set 4 inches apart, and covered at least 4 inches deep. Close planting produces the best bedding effects.

A distinct race of Single Late Tulips, with immense flowers of well-rounded form on tall, thick stems from 2 to 3 feet in height. This, with their very brilliant colors, ranging from almost pure white through all the shades of pink and purple to the most intense red, makes them unsurpassed for planting out or for cutting. A bed of these tall Darwins, with an undergrowth of Myosotis, Daisies, etc., is a most beautiful sight; planted among the shrubbery, they give life and color to the garden. The varieties we offer are selected from a very large collection as the best and most distinct, containing none but the large-flowering sorts, in colors sure to give satisfaction.

Beds of Darwin Tulips

Narcissi, Daffodils, and Jonquils

There is, at the present time, a very large assortment of Narcissi from which to make selections, and nearly all are of a quality worthy of cultivation. It is almost impossible to list the complete line of these beautiful spring flowers, but in the following pages we offer the varieties which we believe will give the best satisfaction. The Trumpet Major and Jonquil Campenelle may be flowered for Christmas, while the Large and Medium Trumpets and the Double-flowering sorts may be had in bloom from the middle of January until early spring.

When ordering the large-flowered or double varieties, please do not use the word "Jonquil," as the true Jonquil is the small or miniature-flowered sort.

CULTURE OUTSIDE.—The large-flowered, or the sorts which have large bulbs, should be planted from 4 to 6 inches deep and about 5 inches apart. Planting should be begun as soon as possible after October 1.

CULTURE IN POTS.—As a general rule, treat Narcissi the same as Hyacinths. They should be planted about 6 bulbs in a 6-inch pot or pan and put in a dark and cool place, where they may develop their roots. Let them remain until January 1, when they may be removed to a warmer temperature.
